

Hoover, FDR and the New Deal - Government Responds to the Great Depression

I. Hoover's Response

II. Hoovervilles

III. The Bonus Army

IV. The Election of 1932

V. FDR

VI. First Inaugural Address

VII. The New Deal

Hoover, FDR and the New Deal – Government Responds to the Great Depression

- I. Hoover's Response
- President Hoover was _____
 - He believed that _____
 - The Reconstruction Finance Corporation achieved success by providing _____

- II. Hoovervilles
- Settlements of _____ inhabited by _____
 - Derisively named after President Hoover
- III. The Bonus Army
- The U.S. government had promised _____ a bonus to be paid in _____
 - The "Bonus Expeditionary Force" camped near the _____ to support the bill
 - Hoover's removal of the vets made him appear _____
- IV. The Election of 1932
- _____ nominated Herbert Hoover for reelection
 - _____ nominated _____
 - What was the result of the election? _____
- V. FDR
- Born in _____ in _____
 - Distant relative of _____ and married _____
 - Suffered from _____ and was _____ in 1921
- VI. First Inaugural Address
- Attempted to _____ with the famous line
" _____ "
- VII. The New Deal
- Became the nickname for _____
 - Relief: _____
 - Recovery: _____
 - Reform: _____